If you're using the online textbook for the first time, your browser's pop-up blocker might get in the way. Make sure to check with your parent/guardian before choosing to turn the pop-up blocker off. In order to add the websites to your browser's "safe" list, follow the directions below.

*NOTE: After logging into the book's website, try to open the textbook. If you get the following message from IE after, click "Options for this site" and select "Always Allow"

In case that doesn't work:

1. After opening up your browser, click on the gear right below the red "Exit" button and select "Internet options."

2. Under "Privacy," select "Settings" next to "Pop-up Blocker"
3. In the box labeled "Address of website to allow," type the following addresses:
 - a. school.pearsoned.com (Writing Coach)
 - b. www.pearsonsuccessnet.com (PH Lit)
4. Once both have been entered, click "Close" and "Ok" to close out of the internet options.

The only options in Safari are to allow all pop-ups or to block all pop-ups. Make sure to talk with your parent or guardian to decide if you can keep the pop-up blocker off after closing your e-book.

To turn the blocker on/off, simply click the gear under the Exit button and check/uncheck next to “Block Pop-Up Blocker”
